June 21-22 Beginning Polymer Clay 2 – 4 p.m. $60 plus $10 supplies Adult; limit of 10 students

Come learn to make two simple canes with polymer clay. Use the canes to make your own beads and pendants for polymer clay jewelry. Two 2-hour classes.

June 30 and July 7 Me and Oma's Cookies 2-4 p.m. $60 per pair; supplies included All ages; limit 6 pair.

You and your grandchild will be able to bond and create a personal stoneware serving tray for your tea and cookie get-togethers for years to come. In this class, you will learn the slab/slump mold process and how to apply texture to create the tray form. The second day, you will learn about color and glazes for your tray before the final firing.

July 5-8 Super Heroes Art Camp 10 -12 p.m. $120; supplies included 10 and older; limit 10. Who will be your super hero? Day one will cover proportion of the face and using the clay slab method to create your Super Hero mask. Day two will complete the 3-D clay mask form and a lesson on proportion of the human form. Day three will be an introduction to watercolor techniques and painting the action figure. Day four will be adding color to the clay mask and completing the painting of your super hero.

July 18 - 20 Art Meets Ecology 10:30 – 12:30 pm Free for kids. $5.00 for adults. All kids under 10 must be accompanied by an adult. Learn how to draw plants after collecting and pressing them.

July 26-29 My Animal Sculpture 10-12 p.m. $90 supplies included 10 and older; limit 10

What is your favorite animal? In this class you will be guided to draw your animal in two positions before using clay to form it. Day two will include instruction on the possibilities to create the form. Day three will be the opportunity to learn how to apply texture for a realistic look. Day four will be your last chance to add any details and hollow out the form before being fired. The animal will be fired in a kiln after it dries for about 2 weeks.
